Non Traditional Doctor of Pharmacy Program at The Howard University College of Pharmacy

Career Support Traditional COP Program vs. NTDP 2017 to 2020

Effectiveness of Teaching Traditional COP Program vs NTDP 2017 to 2020

Overall Satisfaction
Traditional COP Program vs NTDP
2017 to 2020

The Traditional students and the NTDP students have been asked to provide information regarding their satisfaction with the program on an annual basis. The programs were delivered and administered in different fashions. The traditional students had in person lectures delivered by the Howard University faculty on campus and were able to have face to face interaction with faculty, staff, and administrators at the Howard University College of Pharmacy. The NTDP students were involved in an online program where the lectures were delivered by faculty at Shenandoah and had minimal in person contact with Howard University faculty or staff as the program was simply administered through Howard. Therefore the questions administered during this time were tailored for each
